

HSEQ Policy

Through our actions we are committed to the interests of our customers our employees other interested parties and the communities in which we live. This commitment is integral to the long term success of Titan Torque Services Ltd.

We at Titan Torque Services Ltd feel that collaborating with other responsible companies, we can be closer to the people; we can make the difference that matters.

We promise to maintain these high quality standards by the implementation, development and ongoing improvement of a HSEQ system supported by its people, processes and the resources required for the field of activity and purpose of Titan Torque Services Ltd.

The engagement of Senior Management reflects the philosophy and values of Titan Torque Services Ltd. The same engagement is taken and observed by our employees.

The vision of Titan Torque will only become a reality if we take care of our customers' needs, employees, collaborators, partners and the environment.

Keith Gaskin
Managing Director
October 2016

